Core Instructor: Seba Dja Ashby (Dr Dja Karen Clarke-Ashby): This 10-week Course #2 offers 40 hours of Presentations. Starting at Week 4 of this Course #2, each class, in addition to the Initiatic level wisdom studies from Temple Hieroglyphs and the Pert M Heru and other Ancient Kemetic (Egyptian) scriptures that correlate to each Sefech Ba Ra (abbreviated below as SBR, eastern Chakra), we will also have a Practicum aspect related to the SBR of focus. This Course #2 follows our 4 week Course #1 that provided a foundation, which you will have access to (included in this course fee) if you missed any of those classes.

Seba Dja's Approach to the Arat Sekhem Serpent Power (Eastern Kundalini Yoga) for Our Virtual Mystic Egypt Tour Course:

Most courses on the Serpent Power Yoga (Kemetic Arat Sekhem, Eastern Kundalini Yoga) begin with the First Energy Center/SBR/Root Chakra. However, we will take a different approach, starting with the goal of our practice, the raising of the Arat Sekhem Energy to the 7th SBR/Chakra, associated with our True Self or Perfected Being [Kemetic Neberdjer or Neberdjer-Ra-Asar (Osiris), Eastern Brahman, Cosmic Consciousness], and Spiritual Enlightenment. We will then follow the 3 ½ turns of the coiled Serpentine Energy in its "Downward" Creative path of the Serpent Power, from SBR 7, to SBR 6, to SBR 5 to SBR 4, to SBR 3 to SBR 2, to SBR 1, as it creates the human conscious construct from the wholeness & perfection that is the True Self. Some may be aware of the Eastern coiled Kundalini Serpent with 3 ½ turns. There is also a Kemetic coiled Goddess Aset Arat Sekhem (Serpent Power) Serpent as well with 3 ½ turns; this ancient image is referred to as the Basket of Aset (Isis) by Dr Muata Ashby, Sebai Maa, in his book Serpent Power.

This "top down" Creative approach to the Arat Sekhem parallels the incarnation of the Divinity Asar (Osiris) in the foundational Kemetic (Ancient Egyptian) Epic Mystic Myth, the Asarian (Osirian) Resurrection. Asar (Osiris) is sent (manifested) by Neberdjer-Ra, the Supreme True Self, into the world of Time and Space, Creation. Asar's (Osiris's) incarnation was pure with all of the Arat Sekhem Energies operating at their "Peak of Perfected Being-ness". Asar experienced his True Self as Neberdjer-Ra, though manifesting with a human physical body. But then something happened! Egoism happened! Asar forget his Divine Identity as Neberdjer-Ra, which then gave rise to Egoism, Ego Self-Concept and Ego Identity. Instead of Neberdjer-Ra is my True Self, egoism shifted his identity to a focus on the body-mind personality as being the true essence. This egoism caused a disbalance in the vibrations and flow of the Life Force Energy, Sekhem, such that all the SBR Energy Centers were affected and unable to sustain the connection to the True Self, Neberdjer-Ra. Asar (Osiris) forgetting his True Self from which he came forth is expressed in the myth as him being killed by his brother Set, who represents Egoism. The myth goes on to detail how Asar (Osiris) is resurrected and revived, to remember his True Transcendental Neberdjer-Ra-Asar Nature. So we will be following the trajectory of this mystic journey, starting with the Perfected Glory of our True Self, Neberdjer, then our incarnation into Creation, followed by our forgetfulness of our True Self, and the Mystic Path of the Serpent Power, raising our consciousness up through each of the 7 planes, to once again, remember our True Essence. This same theme is also expounded in another important Kemetic Myth, the Glorious Light Meditation Myth of Goddess Hetheru (Hathor) and Lord Djehuty (Thoth, Hermes), that details Hetheru's forgetting her True Self and the egoism of getting caught up in Creation and her journey through the disciplines of Mystic Spiritual path to remember her True Neberdjer-Ra Self and regain the glory of her Perfected State of Being. We will study this latter myth as our first class in this course, as Hetheru, like Aset, is also a Serpent Power Goddess.

As we partake of this "top-down" Creative approach, we will also engage the coiling/spiraling aspect of the Serpentine Life Force Movement that expresses a correlation between the SBR 7 and SBR 1, SBR 6 and SBR 2, and SBR 5 and SBR 3, with SBR 4 being the Central Heart Balancer. Thus, through this approach, we will experience the "Ideal Expression or Flow/Vibration" of the Serpent Power Energy at each of the Energy Centers/SBR/Chakras, what Asar (Osiris) experienced when he was first incarnated (manifested), what Hetheru experienced when she was first sent into Creation by her True Self, before Forgetfulness of the True Essence/Self and Egoism. We also see this “ideal expression” in Enlightened Sages, those human beings who successfully completed the Spiritual Mystic Journey to remember/re-discover their True Self, and left us these teachings and Sacred Sites as their legacy, for us to be able to also complete our purification, recalibrate to our “Ideal Serpent Power Flow or Vibration” and upward journey back to our Original Source and True Self. Thus this “Downward” Creative path will establish an Arat Sekhem Psycho-Spiritual-Mystical Energy Vibration exemplar at each SBR/Chakra, that is, the ideal of the non-ego tainted Arat Sekhem Energy. This will then serve as a point of reference or “Gold Standard” for our “Upward” Ego-Dissolution Arat Sekhem Cleansing & Spiritual Transformation process from SBR 1 up to SBR 7. Thus, with this point of reference, we can now evaluate ourselves against this “Arat Sekhem SBR Ideal Gold Standard of the Energy,” and determine what we must cleanse, purify, and shift in our psychology and conscious awareness, to come into alignment with the Mystic-Spiritual Principle of each SBR, that will lead to Sema Tawi, Union of the Higher Self and Purified Lower Self, and Heru Behudet or Ur Wadjet, Spiritual Victory, Mystic Intuitional (Experiential) Remembrance of one’s True Self, Transcendental Consciousness, expressed mythically as Neberdjer-Ra-Asar or Goddess Net, in the Kemetic Mystic Tradition.

This top down Creation movement followed by the upward Spiritual Transformation movement is also evidenced in the construction and architecture of the Kemetic Temples. Construction began with the most sacred part of the Temple, the Holy of Holies or Sanctuary, which has the highest flooring (highest point) in the Temple, representing a nexus point where the Transcendental Neberdjer conscious firsts manifests on the Primeval Mound, called a Ben Ben point. Thus, in consideration of the Serpent Power Wisdom, The Ben Ben point or pinnacle of the Temple, the metaphoric top of the original mountain of Creation, corresponds to SBR 7, and the place for the attainment and experience of Enlightenment. The Temple then extended outward, with the flooring becoming sequentially lower and lowest in the outer court, the area for new Initiates. So, the Enlightened Sages would emerge from the Sanctuary moving downward to the new Initiates, and then facilitate those new initiates to become raised up in consciousness, and move upwards sequentially to the Sanctuary with their attainment of Nehast, Enlightenment. So even the Temples followed this concept of the downward creative movement from the Transcendental realm followed by an upward dissolution of egoism process of spiritual Transformation to discover the Transcendental.

We will encounter the term “mench/menkh” in our Sacred Wisdom Hieroglyph Temple Studies and Wisdom Text. It relates to the process of sculpting. It is said that each block of stone that a sculptor is working on already contains the ideal image. So the work of the sculptor is not to create the ideal image, but rather, to remove what is not that ideal image, what is unnecessary and blocking that revelation of the ideal image that lies within that block. When the extraneous matter is removed by the sculpting process, what is revealed is what was already there, the ideal image. Similarly, the Mystic-Spiritual idea of the “menching” process is that we are ALREADY the Perfected Transcendental Self (Enlightened). And to realize this goal of life that bestows abiding happiness (Reshert/Bliss), Abiding Joy (Awet Ab), and Abiding Peace (Hetep), we must “mench/menkh” our personality and remove egoistic impurities that have attached to it, which block and prevent the inner revelation of Perfect Spirit Being, the Transcendental Self, Neberdjer (or Neberder-Ra-Asar depending on the context). Thus, the Arat Sekhem Serpent Power process is one of the Mystic Spiritual modalities for this “menching” sculpting process, and we will engage that process in this course.

The Practicum Part of Course #2 will include:

- 1) (Simple) Kemetic Postures or posture variations that can be done even while seated, and their mythic-mystic reflections, related to each Energy Center (Sefech Ba Ra [SBR], Chakra) ,
- 2) Devotional music, and or chanting and or singing,
- 3) Journaling, Cleansing Reflections & Meditation on the Energy Center (Sefech Ba Ra, Chakra),
- 4) Sharing Insights (voluntary), AND Question & Answers.
